

DEVOTED TO THE UPLAND LIFESTYLE

OUR MISSION

THE BEST OF THE SPORTING LIFE.

Welcome to Covey Rise. We are the voice that bridges time in the field to time in our everyday lives. We are the publication that covers all facets of the upland sport: the destinations, the personalities, the beloved dogs, the hidden places, the quiet moments afield, the flushed coveys and the unforgettable memories.

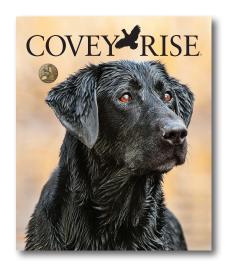

We represent the best of the culture that exists before and after the hunt: the goods and gear, the culinary, the drink, the slow burning cigar accompanied by a fire, and the stories told around that fire.

We are the voices, photographers, and artists who bring to life our passions and place them in ink on paper. We are the stories behind the bespoke gun and hand-crafted goods; we are the narrators that tell about the people whose craft fuels their passion.

We are the Best of The Sporting Life.

We reserve our advertising spots in the publication for brands we trust, that fit the lifestyle we cater to, and that our audience can help grow.

Unlike most magazines on the market, the Covey Rise model reflects a 75-percent content to 25-percent advertising ratio, with only full-page slots. The advertisements within the pages of Covey Rise are meant to be enjoyed by the reader, and are meant to cater to their demographic. The small ratio of advertisements gives the advertiser a guarantee that their endorsement is noticed, and by the top percent of our sporting industry's clientele.
