ABOUT KESSLER CANYON

Hidden deep within the canyon along the banks of Brush Creek, Kessler Canyon awaits travelers and hunters ready to awaken their adventurous spirits. Spanning 15,000 acres of unspoiled wilderness on the Western Slope of the Colorado Rockies, this rustic retreat offers luxe facilities and total solitude with plenty of options for guests to discover the magic of the outdoors.

The ranch experience comes complete with inspiring accommodations, gourmet cuisine, a friendly professional staff attending to guests' every need and numerous outdoor recreation activities including everything from upland bird hunting, to guided ATV and Jeep tours, mountain hiking and biking, fly fishing, shooting instruction. Kessler also acts a retreat, with full-service relaxing amenities.

Part of the Kessler signature properties is the Kessler Canyon art collection, which was established by hotelier and art enthusiast Richard C. Kessler. It contains a wide variety of original and rare pieces, all of which were curated from Mr. Kessler's personal collection. Pieces range from paintings, to bronze sculpture, to unique jewelry and even pieces you can purchase.

THE HUNT

GAME - Mixed Bag: Pheasant, Chukar, Quail

TERRAIN - High desert. Hunt will range from mountain side – rocky with pinion pine, cedar, juniper and sage – to the valley floor of field grass and sage, with rolling low-grade elevations.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The goal of this trip is to exceed expectations at every turn. We begin with an extraordinary destination, we add products from Filson and other fine purveyors that embody the upland lifestyle and experiences like cooking demonstrations, wine pairings, bourbon tastings, and hand-picked cigars. We introduce you to special guests and experts on topics large and small to guide conversations you won't have elsewhere. And we wrap your hands around best guns with instruction that will improve your shooting and enhance your passion for the upland sporting lifestyle, making your dream hunt your new reality.
